

Longford Women's Link Disclosure Statement

Guiding Principles for Fundraising

Disclosure:

"Donors have the right to be informed of the status and authority of those soliciting donations; for example, donors will be informed if fundraisers are employees of the organisation or third party agents".

Longford Women's Link is open about whether those seeking donations on their behalf are volunteers, employees of the organisation or are third party agents. Anyone fundraising on behalf of (named organisation) must ensure that prospective donors are aware of their status, i.e. volunteers, employees or third party agents.

Note:

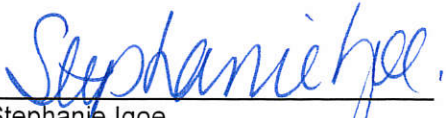

If or when a member of the public enquires about the employment standing of a fundraiser they must receive an honest and open answer. The standing in this case relates to whether or not a fundraiser is a volunteer, a paid employee of the charitable organisation or a third party agent working on behalf of the charity. Therefore, depending on their status, fundraisers are instructed to answer any such query as follows:

Volunteer: "I volunteer for Longford Women's Link"

Employee: "I work for Longford Women's Link"

Third Party Agent: "I work for 'Name of Company' company and we have been engaged by Longford Women's Link to raise funds on their behalf"
